

RESPONSIBLE TRAVEL GUIDE

Zanzibar

Where to stay

Nungwi/Kendwa (north coast)

$ Magharibi House - homestay, tasty breakfast and close to the beach - $23 p.n.

Michamvie Kae (east coast)

$ Minazini Suaheli House - our favorite! - picturesque place & lovely owner Yussuph - $28 p.n.

Stone Town

$ Mkunazini House - quiet, clean and in the centre of Stone Town - $33 p.n.

Where to eat

$$ Michamvi Kae: Sundown Beach Bar & Restaurant - locals serve the catch of the day

Stone Town

$ Lukmaan Café - a wonderful selection of Zanzibar's local foods (best for Breakfast)

$ Ma Shaa Allah Café - Indian-Sansibarian cuisine: authentic and indescribably good - right next to the Lukmaan Café (best for dinner)

$$ StreetFood at "Old Fort" - known as the Fordhani Garden with countless food stalls to discover

How to get around in Zanzibar

Walk - explore every place easily on foot

Bus - All roads lead from and to Stone Town

Stone Town to the north - Kendwa - approx. 25 min. by bus

Stone Town to the east - Michamvi about 30min by bus

Responsible Tour Companies

Amo Zanzibar Touren&Safaris - responsible, authentic insights into the Swahili culture, focused on tourism leaving positive traces

Colors of Zanzibar - cultural and ecological excursions all over Zanzibar, only with local guides

i-likelocal.com - offer village tours and cooking classes

How to leave a positive impact

Barefoot College Zanzibar - offers workshops on sustainable & fair solutions throughout East Africa

Zanrec, Stone Town - innovative social waste company offering garbage pick-ups with the "Mamas" of Zanzibar. A great opportunity to get in touch with local women

Zanzibar Butterfly Centre, Pete - The entrance fee is used to support farmers in the village and protect butterflies